Dear Peter

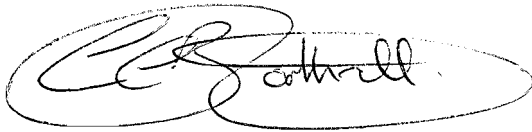

I hope this finds you well. Sharon and I wanted to put in writing our thanks for your very professional services in our barn conversion.

This was our first time attempting a project of this size and your advice and guidance were invaluable. The specialist contractors you introduced us to were also superb.

The quality of the building and the finished property were and are a testament to your own very high standards of craftsmanship.

Your project management on a very difficult and complex project was excellent and saved myself and Sharon from a great deal of anxiety.

Overall we have no hesitation in recommending you and your partners to anybody contemplating undertaking a building project.
